

Dear Friends of Talking Book Library Supporter:

The Arizona Friends of Talking Books Biennial Silent Auction is coming up soon!

We are back with Art of Whine at The Heard Museum.

What you need to know:

Date: Friday, September 27, 2024

Location: The Heard Museum

Time: 5:30pm – 8:30pm

The Art of Whine (aka “Whine & Cheese”) is Arizona Friends of Talking Books (AZFOTB) signature fundraising event. Spend a beautiful evening in the museum listening to music, sipping wine, and shopping our exciting silent auction lots.

Started in 1933 and sponsored by the Library of Congress, the National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled (NLS) is a national network of cooperating libraries that distribute recorded books to people with vision loss.

AZFOTB is a nonprofit organization associated with the Arizona Talking Book Library, a library that provides free audio books and portable players by mail to over 7,000 Arizona residents unable to read due to visual impairments and/or physical disabilities.

Ways to Help:

- Donate Items for the Silent Auction: All donations, gift certificates, art, merchandise, services, and sponsorships are welcome and tax-deductible. You will receive a listing on our website.
- Event Sponsorship: Funding from sponsors is used to cover the cost of our event with 100% of the proceeds going back to the Arizona Talking Book Library.

For more information on event details, sponsorship, donation and ticket options, an auction preview, advance registration, and volunteer opportunities, please visit: <https://www.azfotb.org/>.

Thank you for your time, your commitment, and your help!

Sincerely,

The Arizona Friends of Talking Books
